“What are the odds?” Don’t gamble against compliance with franchise sales regulations

By: Paul Woody, Greensfelder, Hemker & Gale

One of the frequent services my colleagues and I provide to franchisors is franchise sales compliance training. It is often an eye-opening experience for new franchisors, and even experienced franchisors can find it to be a stark reminder of how heavily regulated the business of selling franchises is.

The reward, of course, can be great. Brands see franchising as an investment that will provide increased brand awareness, market share and revenue in return. However, it is important to do it right from the start.
