Alex Moody and Suzie Holycross Talk eTicketing.

Hear from the experts themselves in the latest issue of Embark, Command Alkon's annual industry magazine!

Alex Moody, Senior Product Manager, shares how heavy building materials contractors, operators, owners, and suppliers are fueling success with transformative tech through a digital platform approach, data gathered through Internet of Things (IoT) devices, and the ability to capture ticket data through solutions like CONNEX, and more.

Suzie Holycross, Business Development Manager - DOT, shares how eTicketing allows transportation agencies (as well as contractors and other groups) to lower costs, while also removing manual paper-based workflows on the jobsite.
